

2010 IRWSA NATIONAL SPECIALTY

Dateline: Wrightstown, PA, October 9 & 10, 2010

The Irish Red & White Setters Cross the Delaware

Saturday morning dawned clear and warm at the Middletown Grange Fairgrounds in historic Wrightstown, PA. In a village peppered with pre-Revolutionary War residences with the site of General Washington's Crossing of the Delaware nearby, the IRWSA National Specialty weekend began promptly at 8:30AM. The Judge's Education Seminar under Anna Jones' leadership with Pat Brigden as presenter was the first activity to begin. Shortly thereafter the Obedience and Rally ring began activity under the watchful eye of Judge Patricia Scully. Later in the morning the Sweepstakes began in the outdoor ring with Dyane Baldwin serving as Judge. After a break for lunch, the Show began at 1:00PM with Mr. Michael Faulkner in the ring. The National was dedicated to the memory of Canon Doherty and Peter Heidi and Mollie Heidi was present to present the Best of Breed ribbon. The day closed with the 1st Annual presentation of the IRWSA Annual Awards at the conclusion of the IRWSA Banquet. With leadership from Show Chairs Terry Pierce and Kathy Pellerito the day moved smoothly and in a generally relaxed manner.

On Sunday, it was back across the Delaware for the National Hunt Test in Clarksburg, NJ. With outstanding leadership from Chris and Tami Orcutt the day again moved smoothly and a great time was had by dogs and handlers alike, except for the cockleburrs. Complete National results for the weekend follow. The pictures in the collages are not the official show photos and are intended only to give a flavor of the weekend. The official pictures may be found at the website listed in several places in the Forum.
